ANAS CITY, June 28.—(By Associated Press.)—George Von Elm, Salt Lake golfer, made one of 147 in the qualifying round of the western golf championship tournament here today.

“Chick” Evans of Chicago was first with 143 and Gene Outimet fourth with 146.

(Special Dispatch.)
ANAS CITY, Mo., June 28.—George Von Elm of Salt Lake, leader of the Trans-Mississippi, Pacific Northwest, Utah state and Southern California golf championships, one of the real contenders for the crown now worn by Chick Evans in the Western Golf association tournament. Play in the annual tournament was to start at 10:50 a. m. today.

Von Elm is still suffering from an infection under his left arm, but expects to be in the finals. The youthful Salt Lake golfer has played good golf since his arrival here and many believe that he will be one of the finalists in the championship contests.

He shot a 74 here Tuesday, placing him in with a total of 147. The Salt Lake golfer is paired in the first round today with Henry Decker. Von Elm's card was 455 444 441—38.

JACK ADAMS MADE SEATTLE MANAGER

SEATTLE, Wash., June 28.—Walter McCredie was removed as manager of the Seattle baseball team in the Pacific Coast league Tuesday night on the return of the team from the south.

A statement by James R. Boldt, president of the club, said:

“Walter McCredie has been removed as manager and will be employed as scout for the team. Jack Adams, one of the smartest players in baseball, has been appointed manager by the board of directors.”

WEST COAST HITTER SENSATION OF CUBS

CHICAGO, June 28.—“Hack” Miller, the Pacific coast slugger with the Cubs, who has returned to a regular berth in the outfield, continues to smash the ball. He poked three hits in each game Tuesday.

Experts' Opinion “Team That Beats New York Giants Will Play in Next World Series” Still Holding Good

The team that beats the New York Giants will win the pennant in the National league.

That in substance is the prediction of all the baseball experts prior to the opening of the season.

On the showing of the clubs so far in the race that opinion still holds good. As a matter of fact, the work covering the first third of the race has strengthened the belief.

In only one respect have the Giants disappointed the so far on the road. At the Polo Grounds McGraw's club has been unbeatable. On the road it has been only a so-so aggregation.

The Giants have a great ball club. It ranks with the old-time star aggregations like the Cubs and Athletics, when those two teams were at the top of their game.

New York has a great infield, is strong back of the plate and in the outfield. The pitching is perhaps not all that might be desired, but leaves that problem to McGraw to solve.

If the Giant pitchers were showing the form they did against the Yankees in the world series McGraw wouldn't have to worry.

Pittsburgh and St. Louis look like the most formidable contenders for the runner-up honors, while Brooklyn, Chicago, Cincinnati and Boston might be rated as the dark horses.

Boston got away to a very bad start and disappointed badly in the early stages of the race. Of late the club has been playing the game it is capable of and is closing up the gap.

Mitchell says he will be satisfied with nothing worse than fourth.

Pitching is usually the problem that confronts every club. Pitching, or lack of pitching, has played havoc with the Cardinals and Pirates.

Cooper, the star of the Pittsburgh staff and one of the game's greatest left-handers, has not won with his usual consistency. Grimes, the star of the Brooklyn staff, had trouble hitting his stride. Alexander of Chicago has had varying success.

When the star of a team's staff has trouble winning it raises havoc with the team in general.

Grimes of Brooklyn appears to have recovered his form. With Reuther showing well, Brooklyn will probably be very troublesome the rest of the way.

In the National league New York looms up as the class of the field. Pittsburgh and St. Louis are contenders. Brooklyn, Cincinnati, Chicago and Boston are close up, with any of them having a chance to prove troublesome and break into the first division.

Philadelphia will probably think it is out of the league before the race is over. The Phillies appear destined to get the flag before coming into the stretch.

In conclusion, the team that beats the New York Giants is going to play in the world series.

Only Three Games Remain in Schedule; Ogdan Goes to Logan

The Ogdan Gunners journeyed to Logan today to meet the Logan Collegians in one of the final games for the first half of the league schedule, which closes July 4.

Ned Niles was slated to do the chucking for Ogdan while Lefty Dimmock will do the twirling for the Loganites.

With Ogdan and Brigham but a half a game ahead of the Logan club the Loganites are primed for battle.

Smithfield will meet Brigham on the Peach lot in the other contest. Dutch Rock is slated to perform on the slab for the Summits, while Lefty Hall appears to be the choice of the Peaches.

The Summits will entertain Brigham on their home lot Saturday. Ogdan meets Logan here at 2:30 o'clock Sunday.

Today's Schedule

Ogdan at Logan.

WILLARD HOPS ROPE AND SHADOW BOXES

LOS ANGELES, June 28.—Jesse Willard, former world's heavyweight boxing champion, began training here Tuesday for what he hopes will be a return match with Jack Dempsey, who will come from his hometown of Toledo.

He termed his work today “light signal practice,” as is consisted of rope skipping and shadow boxing and told the small army of sports writers and camera men from newspapers and motion picture news weeklies that he would “get down to hard work tomorrow.”

“I'm in dead earnest about this,” he said. “I want to meet Dempsey again because I believe I can beat him. If I get another chance I'll try to prove it was only a lucky punch that gave him the victory over me before.”

“If I didn't honestly think I could beat him, I certainly wouldn't go through months of hard training,” Willard says he “will be ready for Dempsey” in October.

The big Kansas boxer is training at the Hollywood stadium of the American league.

JIM SCOTT TRYING TO WIN 25 GAMES

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Jim Scott, the big veteran right-hand pitcher of the San Francisco club of the Pacific Coast baseball league, wants to win 25 games this season.

Scott has wanted to win 25 games every season since he came to the majors from the Chicago White Sox where he was a star. In 1920 he almost reached his mark, but fell short two games.

To date this season Scott has been going great and it appears certain that he will pass the mark. During the first 12 weeks of the season he won 12 starts and in four games during the past month Scott never allowed an earned run.

Last year Scott played 15 and toward the close of the season he weakened and writers here said they thought he might be at the end of his baseball career. But during the winter he put himself through a stiff course of training and came back this spring feeling fine.

MARTIN TRAINS FOR BOUT WITH BRENNAN

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 28.—Bob Martin, heavyweight champion of the A. E. F., will resume training here today for his scheduled 12-round bout with Bill Brennan on July 3 at Cliffside park, near here. Brennan is due to arrive Sunday.

MOTHER BOOSTING FOR WILLIE KAMM

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Willie Kamm, San Francisco baseball player, who recently was sold to the White Sox for $100,000—the greatest price ever paid for a minor leaguer—has one very ardent supporter—his mother.

Mrs. Edward Kamm, Willie's mother, sits behind the plate at nearly all the games in which her son plays and watches his every move.

“Willie always was crazy about the big deal. And I guess I'm almost as crazy about it as he is. Ever since he was a little boy we both have been interested.”

LEFT EARFUL.
“Foul,” he cried.
And foul was right.
He hung outside
The ropes that night.

RIGHT EARFUL.
“Ask your head!”
And that he did—
Into the sack
Headfirst, he slid.
